OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

21 June 1963 - Friday

1. [] Talked with Representative Gerald R. Ford and advised him that we did not plan to brief [] before his travel to East Germany and indicated we would plan to see him after his return for debriefing. Mr. Ford agreed that this seemed to be the best approach and again recommended [] very highly.

2. [] Talked with Dorothy Fosdick with reference to the U. S. Ambassador to Tokyo appearing before the Jackson Subcommittee. I pointed out that we were asking the Ambassador to [] in his unclassified statement. Miss Fosdick understood and said that in any event he would be heard in executive session.

3. [] Mr. Smart advised that our early retirement legislation will be introduced Monday and referred to Subcommittee No. 1 for hearings. See memorandum for the Record for details.

4. [] Mr. Sprankle telephoned to advise that Mr. Cannon had signed an authorization letter on our budget and arrangements are being made to pick this up. From Sprankle's conversation I understand that the letter will generally be in line with earlier discussions with Robert Michals. (See Memo for the Record dtd 21 June 1963)

5. [] Left with Mrs. Josie Hughes, in the office of Representative Harry R. Sheppard, a letter to the Congressman concerning the case of []
